YOUNG MAESTROS PROGRAM

- Dear parents and adult students,
- I am so excited to announce that effective Nov. 1, we are implementing the Young Maestros Program!
- The Young Maestros program is for children ages 14 and under and includes stickers, certificates, prizes, ribbons, and trophies for students who show good listening skills, practice at home regularly, and perform for small audiences.
- In the next few days, you will be receiving the Young Maestros Program Guide. Please share it with your child(ren)! Our teachers will also share the information with your child(ren) during the first lesson in November.
- It is my hope that the Young Maestros Program will help our students grow as musicians, artists, and beautiful human beings. I am continuously refining this new idea so if you have any suggestions that could be helpful for your child, feel free to drop me a note!

Teacher of the Month - Kevin Tracy

1. What do you love the most about teaching?

I enjoy seeing the growth of the students. Especially when they finally have a breakthrough and start to be able to actually feel and truly appreciate what it is that they are playing.

2. How do you inspire your students to practice more?

By having them play things that they enjoy. While sitting for hours banging away on technical studies certainly is good for you, it is not terribly fun. When you find music that the student enjoys and can actually have fun playing, they are able to grasp concepts which would otherwise not be evident to them. People, generally, won't practice much if it is boring and monotonous, so it is important to have music that the students can have fun with.

3. What part do you feel that the recital experience plays in a student's development?

Recitals are important in developing confidence. They force the student to confront fears and anxieties head on and overcome them.

4. What is your favorite type of music?

I mostly listen to rock. It is the music that helps me relax.

5. Tell us about some new projects you are working on!

Currently I am playing a long run of the musical Spamalot. It is such a funny show and very fun to play.

Will Your Child be the New Face of the Academy Thanksgiving Contest!

Send us a photo of your child proudly posing with his or her instrument or during a lesson BY NOVEMBER 15 and if we choose it to be featured in our newsletter and online marketing, we'll send you a $100 gift card to Stop & Shop - just in Time for Thanksgiving shopping! If your son/daughter also tells us what he/she is most thankful for this season, we'll post it on our social media feeds in November!
