Teacher of the Month -Vicky Lee

1. What is the thing you like most about teaching?

I like that I can see my students develop a love for the music that they are playing. I love watching my students progress over time, and develop an eagerness to continue to know more about piano playing, repertoire, and eventually have piano playing become a part of their life's journey.

2. How do you inspire your students to practice more?

I start with the songs or repertoire that attracts or interests students and make sure that it is at the appropriate level. I am careful to let students know what to work on, how to practice, and how to break down the practicing into several steps, occasionally with the aid of nonmusical ideas.

3. What part do you feel that the recital experience plays in a student's development?

It is a good short-term goal to have the ability to prepare a piece and know a piece well enough to perform it in a certain period of time.

Recitals are also not just opportunities for the students to play in front of their families and teachers, but also to expand their performing experience, gain self-confidence, and engage in music with more music lovers.

4. What is your favorite type of music?

I like a lot of different genres of music! Besides Classical music, I also listen to jazz, pop, country, and sometimes rock music too!

5. Tell me about an ensemble you are playing in!

Right now I am in chamber groups affiliated with New England Conservatory (NEC) .

6. Any upcoming gigs/concerts?

The fall semester's performances at NEC are over, but there will be some at the end of the spring semester, with solo and chamber music!
